FIND OUT MORE ABOUT

Information Open Houses February 2010

Bergen LEADS is a learning and leadership experience for adults who live or work in Bergen County. Participants will meet one day per month for 10 months, beginning in September.

We're looking for men and women from the private sector, non-profit agencies, communities of faith and government organizations, as well as community volunteers. We are seeking individuals from all ethnic, racial and socio-economic backgrounds who espouse different political, religious and social views. In short, we want our class to represent and celebrate the rich diversity of Bergen County.

Participants are selected on the basis of demonstrated interest in the community, achievement in their professions and/or volunteer activities, and potential for responsible and effective leadership. If you think you have what it takes, we invite you to submit an application today! Go to www.bergenleads.org
